

Information about expert organizations that have volunteered to serve as independent experts* who might be called upon by NCP to adjudicate disputes related to potential violations of the OECD Guidelines

№	Name of the organization	Dimensions of the OECD Guidelines
1.	NPO “International Center for Green Technologies and Investment Projects”	Environment
		Science, Technology and Innovation
2.	Academy of Public Administration under the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan	General Policy
3.	Republican Union of Trade Unions “Federation of Trade Unions of the Republic of Kazakhstan”	Human Rights
		Employment and Industrial Relations
		Disclosure
		Environment
		Science, Technology and Innovation
4.	ALE “Kazakhstan Association for Occupational Safety and Industrial Security”	Employment and Industrial Relations
5.	JSC “Center for Development of Competition Policy”	Consumer Interests
		Competition
6.	ALE “Kazakhstan Association for Waste Management “KazWaste”	Environment
		Science, Technology and Innovation
7.	LLP «CSD Consulting»	Environment
		Science, Technology and Innovation
8.	NGO «Transparency International –	Human Rights

	Kazakhstan»	Combating Bribery and Other Forms of Corruption
9.	NGO «International Bureau of Mediation»	Resolving disputes, providing mediation services
10.	NGO «International Human Rights Center»	Resolving disputes, providing mediation services

* - The list is not exhaustive, and other organizations not included in it may be involved in considering appeals.